

Recruitment Notice: Civil Engineer – Infrastructure & Watershed Project

Vanarai is a 40-year-old NGO founded by PadmaVibhushan Dr. Mohan Dharia, working for sustainable rural development and environment conservation in India.

We are inviting applications for the position of Civil Engineer to work rural infrastructure & watershed development projects.

Key Responsibilities:

- Designing, Planning, estimation and supervision of civil works such as school buildings, health care centres, toilets, low-cost housing, watershed management and other infrastructure projects
- Conducting structural audits and condition assessments of existing buildings and water conservation structures
- Planning, estimation and supervision of renovation, repair, and upgradation works
- Monitoring and evaluation of civil works including check dams and other water conservation structures
- Site supervision, quality control, measurements, bill verification as per quality & quantity

Qualification & Experience:

- B.E./B.Tech in Civil Engineering
- Postgraduate qualification will be an added advantage.
- Certification or experience in structural audit/ Construction Management / Green Construction will be an added advantage
- Upto 3 years of relevant experience in designing, planning, estimation, supervision, management of construction projects, structural audit, renovation etc.
- Freshers can also apply

Skills Required:

- Strong knowledge of construction methods, materials, and quality standards
- Ability to conduct basic structural condition assessments
- Knowledge of repair and retrofitting techniques
- Proficiency in reading and preparing drawings, estimates, and BOQs
- Knowledge of soil & water conservation structures (preferred)
- Good coordination and communication skills
- Working knowledge of AutoCAD, MS Excel, and basic structural software (preferred)
- Willingness to travel to project sites

Location: Pune

Please apply with current and expected CTC to career@vanarai.org.

For VANARAI

Amit Wadekar
Secretary

